

FRAMEWORK CONCEPTS CO PROFILE

Framework Concepts is a digital solutions provider in different perspectives within the African market. It was formed on November 2022 on the basis of Africa's move towards embracing technology in becoming the next tech hub continent. It provides access to digital tools making work easier and improving efficiency within the African market.

The main focus of framework concepts is the African citizen to share part of digitizing Africa through access of digital products. With the Current trends of Africa to be come the next digital hub Framework Concepts felt a need to become part of this vision. As a company we do believe a generation can only move forward with the change of activities digitally.

Building developing economies in Africa can only be led by reach of digital products according to the co-existing movement of African market way of doing things.

Vision

To be on the fore front as a digital company to enable Africa become a digital hub.

Mission

To reward the confidence to Africans and providing the most innovative ways to make easier and solve co-existing problems in Africa digitally.

About About

Taakila Afrika is a Kenyan entrepreneur and innovator. He is the founder of Framework Concepts, a digital solutions company that provides services to businesses and organizations across Africa. Taakila is passionate about using technology to solve real-world problems and to create opportunities for Africans. Taakila is a graduate of Moi University, where he studied Finance and Banking. After graduating, he went to E-mobilis school of technology before starting his own business in 2022

Framework Concepts has quickly become one of the leading digital solutions companies in Africa. The company provides a wide range of services, including web development, mobile app development, software development. Framework Concepts has worked with a variety of clients, including government agencies, businesses, and non-profit organizations.

Taakila is a frequent speaker at tech events and conferences. He is also a mentor to young entrepreneurs and innovators. He is passionate about helping others to succeed and to use technology to make a positive impact on the world.

Taakila is also a passionate advocate for using technology to solve real-world problems and to create opportunities for Africans.